DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 57, 60-61 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Brown et al.

Brown et al., discloses a surface imaging skin friction instrument with features of the claimed invention including a method for measuring wall shear stress, the method comprising: providing an active sensing film of viscous material to a surface, because of the nature of the film it will be elastically mounted on the surface, causing/forcing the film to move and measuring or controlling the time-dependant position, of the active film (see claim 1).

3. Claims 58-59 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

4. Claims 1-31, 33-36, 44-55, and 62-63 are allowed.

Reason for Allowance

5. The following is an Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance: The primary reason for allowance of the claims is that prior art neither teach nor fairly suggest the particular combination of the wall stress sensor and its method. Major emphasis regarding claims 1, 33, 44, is being placed upon the provision of specific mounting place for the "elastic means" and specific of "driving means". Regarding claim 53 is the provision of or "physical suspension", and specific of "driving means", and regarding claims 62-63, is the provision of damping of resonant force, in combination with other limitations of the said independent claims and their dependent ones.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the Issue Fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the Issue Fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Max H. Noori whose telephone number is (571) 272-2185. The examiner can normally be reached on Tuesday-Friday from 8:00 AM to 6:00 P.M.
